How do you scare a snowman?

You get a hair dryer.

Christmas Close to Home

On Tuesday, Nov. 29, students created beautiful holiday cards with their buddies to be delivered to senior's homes in our area!

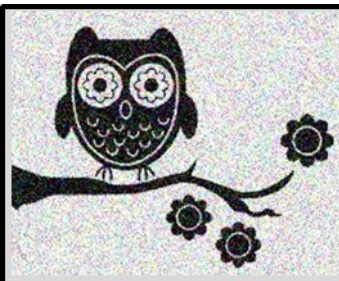

Intramurals will start next week!

Grades 1-3 on Mondays

Grades 4-6 on Wednesdays

It's not easy to miss the fact that it's that Christmas time of the year!

- 1. Have your child practice reading or singing their Christmas Concert songs and count it as Home Reading!
- 2. Know that your child will be writing a letter and mailing it to Santa at school.
- 3. Load up on some holiday books for the break at the library or through the Scholastic Book Order.
- 4. Look forward to spending some quality time as a family during the holiday break.

Core Curriculum Outline

Reading

I can read fluently.

I can read for interest and for inquiry.

I can attend to information in text and apply reading strategies and skills to help me become a better reader.

Writing

I can edit and revise my writing.

I can reflect upon what I am reading and write about it in paragraph form.

I can write an organized letter.

Math

I can represent and manipulate numbers to 1000(Gr.3) or 10,000 (Gr.4).

Social

I can compare the six regions of Alberta.

I can understand how learning about Alberta's geographical features teaches us about our history in this province.

Science

I can investigate the properties of simple machines and name examples of them that are all around us.

Health

I can develop my skills of cooperation.

I can model and encourage fair play.

I can accept my role within a group.

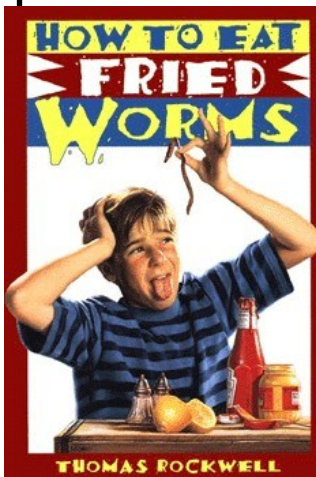

Thank you fundraising families. We earned over $700 for a field trip!

Book Review

We are reading through a novel study about four boys who make a bet to eat 15 worms!

Riley K: "It's a great book so far."

Riley L: "Gross and interesting!"

Ariana: "It's been disgusting and quite funny."

Samantha: "I think this book is only going to get sillier!"

Nolan: "I would read this book again in the future."

Evan: "I don't think I'll ever eat worms!"

1. Rockin' Around the Christmas Tree
 2. Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas
 3. The First Noel
