

Dear Student,

The Edmonton Oil Kings Hockey Club, the Edmonton Oilers Hockey Club, and businesses all over Oil Country are happy to partner in support of Reading, Give it a Shot. This exciting literacy program encourages students like you to embrace in the joys of reading with the chance of winning tickets to a live hockey game at Rexall Place!

To participate, you and your classmates must complete the program reading minimum as assigned by your teacher. After your whole class has finished, you will be entered into a draw to attend an Edmonton Oil Kings or Oilers home game with your fellow students. Also, upon receiving your first classroom Entry Form submission, your class will receive our program Starter Kit. This package includes Reading, Give it a Shot Classroom Posters for the classroom, as well as a pencil and two collectable Edmonton Oilers and Oil Kings bookmarks for you and your peers!

Game tickets for the Reading, Give it a Shot program are provided courtesy of many corporate sponsors. Like the Edmonton Oil Kings and Oilers organizations, these companies believe that reading plays an important role in your continued development. Give reading a shot — it will be worth it!

Sincerely,

Sandra Weaver
Program Coordinator
